

Join Us for STERIS HexaVue/IDSS Training

5 Days of Comprehensive Training by the Leader in OR Integration

STERIS invites Biomedical Engineers to become confident in the operation of our Integrated Digital Surgical Suite through our Biomedical Engineer Training Course. Through our comprehensive training program, STERIS will train Biomedical Engineers to act as immediate first responders in the diagnosis of any simple system issues and interact efficiently with STERIS Service Engineering Team.

Course attendees will be trained by skilled STERIS engineers. Topics covered will include video fundamentals, system architecture, system control, remote diagnostics, system debugging and hands-on troubleshooting.

Cost:

$6,325 USD/student. Travel arrangements are responsibility of the trainees. Breakfast, snacks and lunch are included in the cost of Training.
